Description: Rolling Adjustable Work Table

Ranger's Portable, Adjustable Work Table

This rugged, portable tool cart and work table is the service pro's best friend. The adjustable top can be rotated, raised or lowered to just the right level, making your job easier and less time-consuming. Hooks and tool holder slots accommodate a wide variety of tool holding options, so you no longer have to blindly grasp for your tools while you're under the car. The RCD-65 work table puts everything, including every other rolling work table, in its place.
